The Riverhead Chamber of Commerce heads "back to business" with a "Lunch & Learn" meeting on Thursday, Sept. 11.

Amy Greenstein from Business Mentor NY and Neil Seiden from Asset Enhancement Solutions will be the guest speakers. Greenstein will present the state's first, large-scale, hands-on pro bono business mentoring program to foster small businesses and entrepreneurial growth. Seiden will highlight the traditional and nontraditional types of financing available to businesses in today's challenging economy.

The meeting, which starts at 12 noon, will take place at Smitty's All American Grill, 96 Main Road, Riverhead (next to the All-Star.)

Lunch: $20 for Chamber members and $25 for nonmembers. To register, visit the Chamber's website at www.riverheadchamber.com or call the Office at 631.727.7600.
